

BONUS BILL IS BURIED BY SENATE

Bitter Clashes Mark Vote And Fight Is Almost Started—Stanley Taunts 'Em

Washington, July 16—The administration won its battle in Congress today when the Senate, responding to President Harding's recent request, recommitted the soldier's bonus bill indefinitely to the Finance Committee.

The vote of recommitment was 47 to 29. Both parties divided upon the rollcall, nine Republicans voting against, while eight Democrats joined the bulk of Republicans for recommitment.

An effort for an order directing early return of the bill to the Senate was defeated by a vote of 69 to 7, a motion of Senator William S. Kenyon, Republican, of Iowa, to have the bill brought back early in January being rejected, Senator Key Pittman, Democrat, of Nevada, thereupon announced that he would make a motion every week hereafter to bring back the bill from the committee.

Stormy clashes between Democratic opponents and Republican advocates of recommitment marked the closing debate, but they were mild as compared to scenes which followed the rollcall. One of the incidents was a challenge by Senator Porter V. McCumber, Republican, of North Dakota, champion of the bill, to Senator James A. Reed, Democrat, of Missouri, to settle a question of veracity "outside," and shouts of "sit down," made to Senator Thomas E. Watson, Democrat, of Georgia.

There were many tense moments, especially when Senators McCumber and Reed walked toward each other on opposite sides of the aisle. Senator Joe T. Robinson and others, however, stepped between them. This occurred when Senator Reed, referring to Mr. McCumber's invitation for discussion of their differences "outside," declared "I never saw a blackguard yet who did not want to go outside to settle."

Stanley Taunts Republicans

Washington, July 16—"Today, by this performance," said Senator A. O. Stanley, of Kentucky, just before the vote approving recommitment of the soldier bonus bill in the Senate, "you place the seal of our eternal approval upon that thing you most denounced in Woodrow Wilson or you place the seal of cowardice upon your own conduct. Either Wilson was right and you called him all but traitor or he was wrong. If he was right, the charge should never have been made. If he was wrong, there is no excuse for this base submission to your own President, who more than imitates him."

Mrs. Oldham For Bonus

Lexington, Ky., July 16—The members of the Kentucky delegation in Congress are fired to support the bonus bill now pending in the Senate, in a letter sent to them today by Alice Bronston Oldham, of State War Mothers of the Kentucky State Chapter of American War Mothers. The letter was authorized by the executive committee of the State chapter.

Whisky Poured Out At Ravenna

Seven gallons of whisky of the real Kentucky moonshine were poured out in the sewer at Ravenna depot last week, says the Times. Five men were taken off the L. & N. passenger train No. 4 and placed in Irvine jail pending a hearing on the charge of transporting liquor. The moonshine was carried by the men in their suitcases. They said they were bound for Ravenna and other nearby points. The arrests were made by L. & N. policemen.

PRINCE AND HIS BRIDE

Prince Michael Cantacuzene leaving the Russian Orthodox Greek Catholic church of Roxbury, Mass., with his bride, formerly Miss Clarissa Pelham Curtis. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pelham Curtis of Nahant, Mass., and Boston. Prince Michael is the son of Prince Cantacuzene, Count Speransky, and the former Julia Dent Grant, granddaughter of Gen. U. S. Grant.

MRS. KABER GOES TO PEN FOR LIFE

(By Associated Press) Cleveland, O., July 16—Eva Catherine Kaber today was found guilty of first degree murder with mercy, for killing her husband, Daniel F. Kaber. The sentence carries punishment of life imprisonment without hope of a pardon.

She is the first woman ever convicted of first degree murder in Cuyahoga county.

The verdict was announced by Judge Bonno, defense attorney, before the jury officially reported in hope of reviving Mrs. Kaber so she could enter court. She had been in a stupor all morning.

WM. TROWERS DIES AFTER SHORT ILLNESS

Mr. W. A. Trowers, delivery foreman of the Richmond Ice Co., died Saturday morning at the Patti A. Clay Infirmary, following an operation on Tuesday of this week, for hernia. Mr. Trowers had been a sufferer from this malady for several years, but Tuesday suffered an attack which necessitated an operation.

Mr. Trowers had been a valued employee of the local ice company for the past ten or twelve years, and was generally known and liked by all about town. Mr. Trowers is survived by his wife and six children, and by several brothers and sisters. Two of his brothers, Messrs. George and Tom Trowers, reside here.

Funeral services will be conducted Sunday afternoon at 4:30 at the home, by Dr. Homer W. Carpenter, thence burial in the Richmond cemetery.

INJURED EVANGELIST HERE FOR TREATMENT

Mr. F. B. Grey, one of the members of the Harbin-Watson-Evans evangelistic party, which conducted services at Irvine, had his right arm broken in four places last Friday, says the Irvine Times. He was cranking a car and it backed on him and fractured the arm in such a manner that the bone protruded through the flesh. He was attended by Dr. Broadus who gave him temporary relief, and Mr. Grey was taken to the Gibson hospital at Richmond, in a car where he received the attention of the hospital staff. The trip there was a very hard one on Mr. Grey, the driver of the car being compelled to stop on several occasions to give him a brief rest. At last reports he was resting easier. Mr. Grey left behind him a large number of sympathetic friends who wish him a speedy recovery with no permanent injurious results.

LEGION STILL TO FIGHT FOR BONUS

Commander Chas. George Says "Normalcy" May Show People What $1 a Day Means

(By Associated Press) Chicago, July 16—The American Legion will continue to fight for the soldier bonus with renewed vigor, John G. Emery, of Grand Rapids, National Commander, said today, commenting on the side tracking of the bonus bill by the Senate.

Commander George's Statement

Commander Charles R. George, of the local Jesse M. Dykes post of the American Legion, takes a strong view of the desertion of the soldier boys who fought in the big war by the President and Congress. Mr. George made the following statement today: "It looks like the bonus has gone down for the count. The American soldiers did not fight the war for a bonus, but when they got back from Europe and found that the war had produced seventeen thousand brand new millionaires and that everybody else that stayed at home had been making all the money they could carry home on Saturday night, they had a feeling that the drinks were on the folk at home. The public felt the same way at that time and if they have changed their minds since that time, the soldier can console himself with the hope that when things get back to 'normalcy' the public will begin to understand a dollar a day."

HARDING'S PLAN HELPS LEAGUE DISARMAMENT

(By Associated Press) Paris, July 16—The disarmament conference proposed by President Harding will not conflict with the League of Nations' disarmament move. A temporary mixed commission for reduction of armaments was decided today. The commission declared to continue sessions, expecting its work to be useful in a preparatory way for the Washington deliberation. Rene Viviani, French representative and chairman of the committee, said in opening the meeting, that the proposed conference fitted in with the commission's study on disarmament.

DON'T ROCK BOAT ON IRISH NOW

(By Associated Press) London, July 16—Happenings behind the scenes in the consultation of the Irish parties preliminary to renewal of the conversations between De Valera and Lloyd George on Monday are screened by silence. James Craig, Ulster premier, told interviewers he believed everything depended upon how every question was handled. The slightest indiscretion or misinterpretation may easily cause incalculable harm, he said. What will be the best aid to attain peace is for everyone concerned to withhold comment outside of the official consultation.

Week's Weather Guess

(By Associated Press) Washington, July 16—Weather for the week beginning Monday for the Ohio valley and Tennessee is generally fair, except for widely scattered local thunderstorms and normal temperature.

Obregon Not Bothered By This Little Revolt

(By Associated Press) Mexico City, July 16—The revolt in Tamaulipas state led by General Daniel Herrera will be put down within a little more than a week, officials said. Federal troops are being sent into the troubled districts. President Obregon seems inclined not to treat the revolt seriously.

Welcoming A Daughter

Announcement is made of the arrival of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. D. Myers Coates, Saturday, at the Patti A. Clay Infirmary.

CITIZENS SHOULD THINK CAREFULLY ABOUT WHAT THIS TAXPAYER SAYS

Richmond, July 15, 1921. Mr. S. M. Saufley, Editor, Richmond Daily Register.

Dear Sir:—As a citizen and taxpayer in the city of Richmond I thought that a few lines at the present time might be of interest to the voters and a help for a bigger and better Richmond.

Last month there was a school bond election held in this city and it was very gratifying to note through the issues of your paper that some citizens were interested enough to go into the matter with the school board in regard to the manner in which the money was to be spent.

The coming city and county primary is now less than a month off and I notice through your paper that a few days ago there was a committee of citizens met and selected six gentlemen to make the race for councilmen of the city of Richmond. This committee is entitled to a vote of thanks from the citizens of Richmond for they have shown they are public-spirited citizens and are interested in the welfare and progress of Richmond.

The six gentlemen who have agreed to make the race for the office of City Councilmen deserve the whole and hearty support of every democratic voter of the city who wishes to continue to see Richmond forge to the front.

I have been a citizen and property owner of Richmond for a number of years and at this time of the year, just before a primary election, I have listened with deal of interest, the manner in which the people look upon elections, you can hear them in groups, on the street or in the business houses discussing politics and it is very evident that they are only interested in the races of the county and it is seldom case you ever hear the office of city councilman mentioned, while the welfare and progress of the town, which all citizens should be interested in, solely depends on this body.

The striking part of it is that we are so different in this respect from our neighboring towns, for instance take Paris, Ky.

The present council of Paris, Ky., consists of the following gentlemen:

N. Ford Brent, seed merchant and commission man.
C. W. Spears, miller and commission man.
Edw. Burke, wealthy farmer.
J. J. Williams, bookkeeper and cashier Paris Milling Co.
Hugh Brent, real estate agent.
Geo. L. Doyle, assistant cashier Peoples' Deposit Bank and Trust Company.
The candidates that are running for the office of councilman in the coming primary are the following gentlemen:
C. W. Spears, for re-election.
J. J. Williams, for re-election.
Geo. L. Doyle, for re-election.
Wm. Kennedy, doctor.
Geo. Speaks, real estate agent.

YOUNG WIFE DIES OF BLOOD POISONING

Mrs. Hayden Turpin died at the Gibson Hospital, Saturday morning at 6:30, after a brief illness of blood poisoning. She was before her marriage Miss Gayheart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gayheart, of this city. Her death is greatly deplored by a large circle of relatives and friends.

Surviving her are her husband and two children, four sisters, Mrs. Hendricks, Mrs. N. A. Durham, Mrs. Whitaker, Mrs. Jennings, and one brother, Mr. Jas. Gayheart, all of this city. Funeral services will be held at her late residence Sunday afternoon, conducted by her pastor, Rev. D. H. Matherly, thence burial in the Richmond cemetery.

How It Started

(By Associated Press) Washington, July 16—Sid Hatfield today told the Senate investigators of the Mingo mine troubles the story of the Matewan, W. Va., gun fight. "He said he had warrants for the detectives and attempted to serve them while the detectives tried to arrest him. The committee adjourned until Monday."

W. W. Mitchell, banker.
R. C. Ruggles, auto dealer.
Claude Redman, auto dealer.
Jas. Connell, farmer.
Frank Kiser, banker.
Bernard Santen, banker.
Paris, Ky., has to my knowledge, done more public improvements in the past five years than any other town its size, in Central Kentucky.

Take our next door neighbor, Danville, Ky., a town, which we will all have to admit is one of the best small towns in Kentucky and has one of the lowest tax rates. Conditions such as exist in Danville are brought about by having a board of council of conservative, able business men. The present council of Danville consists of the following gentlemen:

Wm. Anderson, miller.
H. L. Nichols, laundryman.
G. A. McRoberts, president of Farmers National Bank.
J. A. Robinson, retired capitalist and house builder.
E. T. Dunigan, insurance man.
E. G. Dunn, hardware merchant.
J. C. Davis, grain dealer.
C. A. Rust, cabinet maker.
C. P. Cecil, merchant.
Forest Fitzgerald, coal dealer.

All of this board of council are candidates for re-election with the exception of G. A. McRoberts and Mr. R. L. Salter of the firm of Chestnut-Salter Hardware firm, was substituted for him.

It seems to me that the matter of the selection of a city council should be of the utmost importance to the taxpayers of a community. I am reliably informed that the assessed valuation of the property of Richmond is $4,500,000, and a tax rate of $1.85 would mean an income of $83,250, that the license ordinance brings a return of about $10,000 annually, while the penalty and interest on back taxes and revenue from other sources run the total amount to around $100,000, every cent of this money is spent through the hands of the City Council.

There are contracts between public utilities and city continually coming up and these companies come before the council with the best legal talent that money can procure and the interests of the citizens are represented by the council who have to enter into contracts with these companies, other matters of great importance to the taxpayers, too numerous to mention, are continually coming before this body and whatever action they take is binding on the city and the citizens must abide by, therefore, I think it is high time for the citizens to take an interest in the selection of their representatives.

I am merely a citizen of Richmond but am interested in its welfare and thought at this time it may be for the advancement of the town to call the attention of the voters to the important duty before them on August 6, next.

Hoping you will find space for this in your daily, I am,

Yours truly,
A TAX PAYER.

LOW TOBACCO HURT B. NORRIS

A petition in bankruptcy has been filed with federal clerk, Miss Sara Monday her by Attorney C. B. Moore, of McKee, on behalf of B. Norris, of Rural Route No. 1, Richmond. Mr. Norris is a merchant and farmer. His assets are listed at $6,837.59, with liabilities at $8,830.11. Mr. Norris' troubles are said to have been caused by the low price of tobacco this year which would not enable him to get out on the land he had purchased.

Goes Back South

Mr. J. Preston Smith leaves tonight for Florence, S. C., to be on hand for the tobacco market which opens in that state, next Tuesday. Latest advices from South Carolina is that they have had a good rain recently which greatly benefited the crop which had been suffering from the drouth.

Mrs. B. F. VanWinkle arrived last week from Cleveland for a visit with her many friends in Berea.

Secretary Vaughn and family returned home Tuesday afternoon from Tennessee, where they have been visiting relatives during the last three weeks.

Birthday gifts are always in order and usually expected, but when a man receives a fine boy as the choicest gift of his wife, he has reasons to be doubly proud on his birthday. This was the experience of Prof. or B. F. Kyker last Sunday. His neighbors say that he was never before known to whistle while sweeping off the steps of his front porch until last Sunday morning.

Miss Dolly McKinney is visiting relatives in Winchester and Lexington this week.

D. C. Gay, former student of Berea College, who recently moved to the State University of Lexington, was in Berea for a few days during the past week.

John Muncy was called to Cincinnati on Monday. Mr. Muncy is engaged in the construction of a large school building at Red House, Kentucky.

Word has been received here of the marriage in Detroit of Mr. Hermon E. Bartlett and Miss Kitty Harper, of Black Pool, England, and Detroit, Michigan. Mr. Bartlett is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Bartlett, of Union City, where Mr. Bartlett is pursuing the study of medicine.

Dr. Hutchins will preach next Sunday morning at 11 a. m. in Union church and at 7:15 in the evening in the Campus Tent. Professor Rigby will conduct the music at both services and every-

NEW MISSIONARY GETS PASSPORTS

Miss Melinda K. Miller, of Stanford, Widely Related Here, To Sail Soon For Burma

A passport to Kangoon, Burma, was issued Friday by Miss Sara Monday, deputy federal court clerk here, to Miss Melinda K. Miller of Stanford. She will sail within a few days to take up work as a Baptist missionary in the far western field. She goes to San Francisco, from which point she takes ship for the orient, and expects to be at her work by the first of September.

Although she resides within the jurisdiction of the Southern Baptist convention, Miss Miller could not obtain an appointment from the Southern Baptist convention, so applied to the Northern Baptist convention and was assigned to work under the mission board.

Miss Miller has been teaching the deaf language in schools for the deaf a number of years. She is highly educated and expects to start in her work among the heathen teaching English in a Baptist school at Kangoon.

She is related to many Madison county families of prominence, her father having been the late W. H. Miller, a leading lawyer of the Lincoln county bar a number of years ago, and a first cousin of Mr. Will Miller, of the Southern National Bank. Her many friends and relatives all over this section wish her God speed and the greatest measure of success in her work in the Master's vineyard beyond the Pacific ocean.

MISS MARY BALLARD AT DEATH'S DOOR

A message to Mr. J. W. Ballard, at the Hotel Glyndon, from the Good Samaritan hospital, Lexington, Saturday noon, stated that all hope for the recovery of his daughter, Miss Mary Ballard, had been abandoned by her physicians, and it was thought she could live but a few hours. Mrs. Mason Dunn is at the bedside of her sister, and her host of friends here are greatly distressed to hear of Miss Ballard's condition, and still hope for something more encouraging.

DR. GAMBOE HERE EN ROUTE TO INDIA

Rev. Homer Gamboe and Mrs. Gamboe, of Winchester, are here this week to bid goodbye to their many relatives and friends, before sailing August 12th, for India, where they will be sent as missionaries from the First Christian church. They are guests in the home of Mrs. Gamboe's sister, Mrs. J. M. Walker, in Burnamwood, and have been the recipients of much social attention. Mrs. T. K. Hamilton, Mesdames Webber, Shelby and James Hamilton, Mrs. J. M. Risk, Mesdames Joe and Mattie Hamilton, of Union City, each giving a dinner in honor of the visitors. Rev. Gamboe and Mrs. Gamboe are full of enthusiasm and very optimistic in regard to their work and their friends wish they God speed and a safe voyage.

DR. CLAUDE SANDLIN TO VISIT EUROPE

Dr. James Claude Sandlin, of Hazard, has made application for a passport to travel in England, France and Italy on a pleasure trip. Dr. Sandlin was here last week on a visit to his parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Sandlin, and had Miss Sara Monday, federal clerk here, send in his application. Dr. Sandlin has a splendid practice at Hazard and has been working hard since going there about a year ago, so he's going to take a vacation on the other side and see things for a while.

One will be cordially welcomed. The Y. P. S. C. E. meets at 6:15. Mrs. R. E. Bartlett, of Berea,
